

Afghanistan | Flood Situation

-  70
Fatalities
-  250 000
People affected
-  8 670
Houses destroyed
-  > 9 250
Families in need of humanitarian assistance

Source: DG ECHO, ACAPS

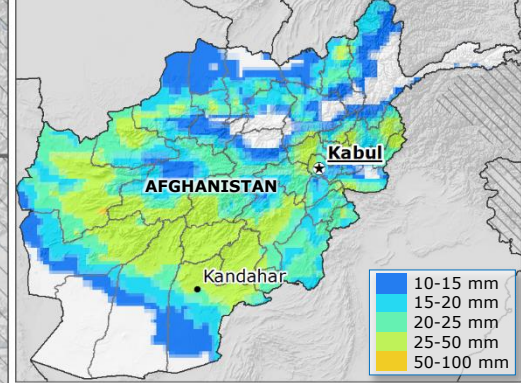

SITUATION OVERVIEW

Source: DG ECHO, ACAPS

- Heavy rainfall and snowfall have been affecting central, southern and western Afghanistan over the past two weeks, triggering floods that have resulted in casualties and damage. The most affected provinces are Kandahar, Helmand, Farah, Herat and Badghis.
- As of 15 March, the death toll stands at 70, more than 8 670 houses have been damaged, approximately 250 000 people have been affected and more than 9 250 families are in need of humanitarian assistance.

10-DAYS PRECIPITATION FORECAST

Source: JRC GloFAS-ECMWF

POPULATION PER PROVINCE

Source: JRC GHSL

